

TAI TOKERAU MĀORI BUSINESS AWARDS 2021

APPLICATION FORM

EXCELLENCE IN ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS AND MANAGEMENT AWARD

Entrants in this category can be across the spectrum of business sectors.

This category acknowledges the unique affinity that Maori business has within Te Tai Tokerau because of the environment it works in.

To be successful the entrant must demonstrate sound knowledge of the responsibility that business has towards environmental management and clearly show a linkage over how environmental management contributes to their business success.

The judges are looking for a business that respects their environment, contributes to development in a sustainable way and are known by stakeholders to be environmentally friendly.

REGISTRATION

To be eligible for application to the awards:

- Your business must be a Māori owned or controlled entity.
- You will need to state on the application form the geographic area in which your business mainly trades. Preference will be given to those businesses that can whakapapa or have established links to the Tai Tokerau rohe and are trading within the Northland Regional Council boundary.

You are eligible to enter all, or any, of the categories in these awards which you believe are relevant to your business.

For the purpose of definition, 'Māori owned or controlled' is determined by the ownership model and the Directors/Trustees who dominate the Board.

CLOSING DATE

This entry form along with supporting documents are to be delivered by 5pm on Friday 19 February 2021 to info@tehiringa.org or by post or hand delivery to the Te Hiringa Office, 57 Clyde Street, PO Box 627, WHANGĀREI 0140, Attention: Steve Bennett
